

Lemon and Rosemary Pork Chop with Apple, Fennel, Red Cabbage Slaw

This light, healthy and versatile recipe is perfect for entertaining this Easter, but also simple enough for a weeknight meal.

Ingredients

- 4 pork loin chops
- 2 tsp fresh or dried rosemary
- 1 lemon, juiced and zested
- 1/4 red cabbage, shredded
- 1 medium fennel, shaved
- 1 apple, cut into matchsticks
- 1 small red onion, sliced
- 1/4 cup hazelnuts, toasted and roughly chopped
- Community Co extra virgin olive oil, and extra for cooking

Method:

1. In a small bowl, combine rosemary, lemon zest, season with salt and pepper and a drizzle of olive oil.
2. To make the salad, add the cabbage, fennel, apple, red onion, hazelnut, lemon juice and olive oil in a bowl. Season to taste and toss well.

3. Preheat the pan or chargrill on medium high heat and season pork with salt and pepper and a drizzle of olive oil.
4. When the grill is hot, place the pork chops for 3-4 minutes on each side or until cooked through. Place the pork on a plate or tray to rest and drizzle over the rosemary, lemon dressing. When ready, serve with the cabbage, fennel salad on the side.
